Heads of Space Agencies to Convene for IAC 2016 in Guadalajara

As each year will be held the Heads of Agencies plenary during the first day of the International Astronautical Congress (IAC). The 67th IAC which theme is 'Making Space Accessible and Affordable to All Countries' will take place from 26 - 30 September 2016 in Guadalajara, Mexico.

The Heads of Agencies plenary event will bring together the leaders of major space agencies worldwide. Following the structure of previous years, this year's Heads of Agencies Plenary will begin with an introductory presentation on latest developments, followed by a discussion on specific topics as well as an interactive Q&A session with the audience.
